The mission is to improve the quality of water delivered to customers by optimizing water system operations. EPWater voluntarily takes part in the program with utilities across the country, with the goal of providing the utmost public health protection. El Paso Water has two treatment facilities that are consistently honored with the Director’s award through this program. These facilities demonstrate an outstanding commitment to delivering superior quality drinking water to customers. We know these plants provide high-quality water to customers, but this award means they are dedicated to going beyond already strict regulatory requirements for surface water facilities. Superintendent Mike Parker of the Jonathan Roger’s plant and Ruben Montes of the Robertson/Umbenhauer plant received the awards for their plants.

Ms. Rosendorf began her presentation by informing the Board of a service called Trend kite which captures all the coverage on any given day be it in print, media, news broadcast. We can use Trend kite to pull data and it allows us to see if the coverage was positive, neutral or negative. The number of positive stories from 2015-present rose from 168 in 2015 to 377 in 2019 with another 125 projected. Some of the stories that helped raise this number were 25 Years of Conservation in 2016, the Kay Bailey Hutchison anniversary in 2017, the Two Nations One Water leading to a CNN story in 2018, and being proactive in pitching of ideas to news outlets in 2019. The Communications team hired a new Media Coordinator, Carlos Briano who has been pitching the new ideas stories to our media outlets. Ms. Rosendorf finished her presentation with a video of highlighted news coverage.

Once each Committee member ranked the top two candidates by personal preference, the points were tallied for each of the three candidates with the following results:
